

For Immediate Release
February 7, 2006

Contact: Julie Laundrie 608-284-0580 ext 303

Statement from the Wisconsin Council on Children and Families:
Special Session on Energy Assistance

“The proposed increase in low income energy assistance is good news for Wisconsin working families. Governor Doyle’s proposed $6 million expenditure of surplus funds for emergency energy assistance this year will help many working families who struggling to pay their heating bills. Considering the increased cost of heat this winter it is particularly important that the Governor and Legislature make this a priority.”